

Telorid.

EIGHT-PAGE CHRISTMAS NUMBER

THE EVENING WORLD

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14.

PRICE ONE CENT, AS USUAL.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1888.

BOLD CROOKEDNESS

Interstate Commerce Laws Broken by Western Railroads.

Judge Cooley Says They Are Open to Criminal Prosecution.

Hereafter Violations of the Law Will Be Vigorously Punished.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13. -Just before Interstate Commerce Commissioners Cooley and Morrison left for the East last evening the former said that the wilful violation of the law and the illegal and illegitunate means resorted to by railroad officials to secure advantages over each other, revealed by the investigation by himself and Mr. Morrison were much worse than any member of the Commission has supposed.

Said Judge Cooley: "The reason the matof their doings than was furnished them by aggrieved parties. The railroads seemed to be governed by the rule that prevails among all law-breakers—not to tell tales on each wither.

"The large and prominent shippers and merchants are benefited by the violations of the law, and consequently have no reason to complain, and are not likely to bring violations of the law to the attention of the Commission. Consequently only cases bring violations of the law to the attention of the Commission. Consequently only cases of minor importance are brought before the Commission, and even in these it is the greatest difficulty to secure reliable evidence. "The trouble is that the Commission is located too far away from the base of operations of these railroads. It should be located where violations of the law could be promptly brought to its notice, and where prompt and thorough investigation can be made. The investigation into the methods of the railroads in transacting passenger bus-made. The investigation into the methods of the railroads in transacting passenger business and other practices resorted to in order to evade the law, has given us a better insight into the illegal practices resorted to by the railroads than we have been able to obtain since we assumed once.

'The revelations of crookedness were astonning, and evidence has come into possession of the Commissioners that would warrant criminal prosecution against several railroad officials.

railroad officials.

"And the worst feature is that every official we examined admitted the facts, but said he had to do it because others were doing it. Some of them even went so far as to justify the illegal action on the ground that the law was oppressive and unjust. One manager who was reported for paying a commission of $6 on a ticket worth $12.50 insisted that there was nothing in the law to prevent him from paying as large commission as he pleased, and afterwards sent a written doccument to the Commission making an argument in justification of such action.

"If the railroads thought that the Commission would rest with the admo-nition given them at Tuesday's mass-meeting of general managers," Judge Cooley continued, "they were greatly mistaken. That was done simply as a warning to give him an opportunity to rectify the evils complained of without further delay, and so bring them to a resti further delay, and so bring them to a reali-gation of the fact that the law must be en-forced.

The Commission will act promptly here-The Commission will act promptly hereafter in every case of violation of the law that comes to its notice, and guilty parties will be punished to the full extent of the law. The Commission cannot afford to have the law made odious by permitting its wilful

HAYTI BOUNCES HER CONSUL.

Mr. Bassett Is Replaced in This City by

E. B. Bassett, Haytian Counsul in this city for the past nine years, has been removed and Vice-Consul Singleton is now acting Consul. This was admitted at the Haytian Consulate this

Mr. Bassett could not be found by THE EVEN-Mr. Bassett could not be found by The Even-mo Wonld reporter to-day, but Vice-Consul Singleton and Minister Preston said the sole gause of the removal was the recent change of Government in Hayti. They denied that the sause of his removal was that he had incurred the enmity of Bois Grand Canal. At the Consulate all deeply regretted Mr. Bas-sett's retirement. He had performed his duties to the entire satisfaction of New York mer-chants and made many friends, Mr. Bassett is an American by birth.

JERSEY CITY NEWS.

Sergt. Wanters Suspended for Outrageous Conduct in a Station-House.

Sergt, Marcelas Wanters, of the Third Precinct police of Jersey City, was suspended to-day by Chief Murphy for disgraceful conduct at the Fifth Precinct Station-House last night. The Captain of the precinct, John S. Smith.

lay at his home opposite the station-house at the point of death from pneumonia. point of death from pneumonia.

Wasters appeared at the station-house in full uniform and drunk. Sergt. McGinniss was about to detail the night squad of men, when Wasters engaged the attention of all by shaking his fist at the house of sickness opposite and cursing the Captain, shouting out a hope that he would be ordered to march at the Captain's funeral very soon.

would be ordered to march as the output neral very soon.

Charges will be made against Wanters at the next meeting of the Police Board, and he will probably be dismissed.

Few Changes for the County Clerk's Office. County Clerk-elect Edward F. Reilly said this morning that he had received applications for appointment from enough men to officer and operate a dozen County Clerk's offices.

'Many of them must necessarily be disappointed," he continued. "I propose to make but few changes in the personnel of the office. There are a few positions confidential in their relations to the head of the office where changes will be made, but a general sweep I will not make."

My love was like a lily fair, Low drooping in the sultry air. My heart was rent with grief and care. I loved her well.

But lo! The wonder grows and grows; My love's now like a blooming rose. How bright her face with beauty glows, I dare not tell.

The wandering bee would stop to sip,
The nectar of her perfect lip,
Twas Ds. Prescas Pavonite PerscairTion wrought the spell.

SPINNING CARLTON'S NOOSE. CHINATOWN IN A FLURRY. FRANKIE'S LATEST FREAK.

BRENNAN GRAPHICALLY TOLD.

fulius Roeder, the Only Witness of " Handsome Harry's" Crime, Again on the Stand-Carlton Shouted "Pil Shoot You if You Don't Stop," and Then Came the Fatal "Click, Click, Click."

The trial of "Handsome Harry" Carlton for the murder of Policeman Brennan was continued before Judge Martine to-day.

That able cross-examiner, William F. Howe, undertook to break the force of the testimony of Julius Roesler, the German, who was probably the only witness of the crime. Carlton's cold gray eyes wavered, and there was an expression of fear on his wicked face as he listened again to the story of his performance on that fatal Sunday morning, Oct. 28.

Roesler had been participating in a political parade the night before, concluding the day of celebration with other divertisements. He had bowled tenpins and played pool and sixty-six. He had drunk a great deal of beer, but he was sure that he was not at all drunk when he dropped in at Tucker's saloon, at Third avenue and Thirty-third street. It was after 4 o'clock in the morning, and Carlton and two other men were in the place.

"They bothered me and wanted me to buy small thirty for them to drink" said the with the for them to drink "said the with the for them to drink "said the with the for them to drink" said the with something for them to drink," said the wit

ess. "Bothered you? How?" asked the lawyer. Said Judge Cooley: "The reason the mat-ter has not been taken up before is that the Commission did not get any more knowledge them till the bartender told them to give it up. Then I went out to go to my home, and "Then I went out to go to my home, and these men followed me and grabbed my umbrelia again on Thirty-third street. I followed them back to Third avenue."

Did they return it that time?"

Yes, sir, when they saw the policeman, and then they walked down Third avenue.

I went towards home, between Lexington and Third avenues, again, and when I unlocked my door some one said: 'Charlie, wait a minute.' I turned round. It was that mar." mar.

Carlton's Tombs-gray face grew even mor livid, and his fixed eyes watered with the strain in the peuse which followed the dra-matic pointing of his index finger by

Roesler,
"That man struck me in the face and my nose bled. I shouted 'Police! Police!' and they ran every way. This man went towards Third avenue and I chased him, and he ran into the policeman at Third avenue. One of the other men turned back west on Thirtythird street and the other turned down Third avenue. avenue.

The policeman opened his arms to stop this man and I saw him raise his pistol and shoot, 'click, click, click, three times.

"How far away were you?" asked Mr. Howe.
"About fifty feet."

"About nrty reet."
"Was it a very bright or a very dark night?"
"Well, it was like any night. Not very dark. 'And Carlton's back being towards you you saw the pistol!"
"Not that. I saw the flash when he shot

"Not that. I saw the flash when he shot it off."
"Through his body?"
"No, not exactly that. Over his head or—Any way. I saw the flash."
"Now you don't mean to tell the jury that you saw that flash over Carlton's head, do you?"

"I saw the flash. I can't tell just how, only I know I seen it. There was a little more time between the first and second than between the second and third shots, and the policeman turned around between the first two chots.

two shots,
This man, when I was chasing him after "This man, when I was chasing him after this, stopped and pointed his revolver at me and said, Stop, or I will shoot you.' After the policeman fell, he ran across the svenue and a policeman coming down shouted: 'Drop that or I'll coming down shouted: 'Drop that or l'll' drop you!' Carlton was pointing his pistol at the officer, but threw it away as he ran away. They caught him a little further up. 'Afterwards, when this men was in the station, the Sergeant told me to walk in front of his cell. I did so, and he spit on me and said: 'You Dutch I wish I had killed you!''

Officer Maurice Colgan, of Captain Ryan's squad, was next called to the stand.

STONE'S FATE IN THE BALANCE.

The Jockey Awaits the Jury's Verdict on the Murder Charge.

Judge Moore, in the Kings County Court of Sessions, this morning delivered his charge to the jury which is to decide as to the guilt or nnocence of Jockey James Stone, who is accused of the murder of Henry Miller, a Coney Island bartender, on June 21. Island bartender, on June 21.

The Judge's charge was impartial and, if anything, slightly favorable to the accused. He analyzed the very conflicting statements made by the various witnesses, and especially the evidence on which Stone relies as an alibi.

The prisoner sat calm and complacent, meeting the jurors' eyes at times with a smiling face. At 10, 45 the jury retired.

Powderly's Picture Causes Trouble. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.1 PITTSBURG, Dec. 13.-The trouble among the officials of District Assembly No. 3, K. of L., is growing more interesting. Master Workman Doyle declines to do business in the office after the Powderly picture episode. He finds business outside of the office of Master Workman. Mrs. Boulanger's Suit Withdrawn.

[BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] Paris, Dec. 13 .- Mrs. Boulanger has with drawn her suit for separation from her husband. Women Hurt in a Runaway Accident.

While Mrs. L. M. French, wife of a well known carriage manufacturer, and her daughter Minnie were driving along Main street, Plainfield, this morning, the horses ran away. Mrs. French and her daughter jumped from the carriage, and both were badir hurt. Mrs. French received deep scalp wonads, and Miss Minnie dislocated her collar-bone.

Clifton Entries for To-Morrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CLIPTON (N. J.), RACE TRACK, Dec. 13.-Fol lowing are the entries for Friday, Dec. 14:

First Race-Purse $250; three-quarters of a mile; selling allowances.—Aver, 117; Alex T. 117; Park-ville, 117; Falsehood, 117; Rejas, 120; Count Luna, 114; Giendon, 114; Vitello, 102; Liszie Walton, 102; King Arthur, 192; Trix, 192; Broughton, 102; Amber, 192; Free Lauce, 102 lb.

Second Race-Purse $250; six and one-half furiongs; selling allowances.—Fiddlahead, 107; Gunshot, 105; Arizona, 102; John Arkina, 100; Village Maid, 99; lone filly, 97; Polento fills, 177 lb.

Third Race-Purse $250; six and one-half furiongs; selling allowances.—Fiddlahead, 107; Gunshot, 105; Arizona, 105; John Arkina, 100; Village Maid, 99; lone filly, 97; Polento fills, 178 lb.

Third Race-Purse $250; six and dispersion of a mile.—Osbornas, 118; Lonis G. 118; Bay Ridge, 118; Albemarle, 115; Wheat, 115; Gambetta, 115; Sam Parker, 115; Nockaleeta, 115; Woodateck, 115; George Corbett, 115; Loris, 115; Can't Toll, 115; A normaly, 115; Maxie, 115; Speedwell, 115; Ocean, 115; Br.

Fourth Race-Furse $500; handicap; one suite.—Capulin, 122; Bernum, 119; Hastersby, 116; Lafitte, 116; Brian Boru, 108; First Attempt, 105; Oceocia, 99; Hasterbok, 90; Mary 1, 90; Deceeda, 910; Basterbok, 90; Mary 1, 90; Deceeda, 110; Braumn, 110; Ozrasejo, 110; Drumstek, 110; Juggler, 110. lowing are the entries for Friday, Dec. 14:

THE STORY OF HIS SHOTS AT OFFICER FOUR FAN TAN GAMBLERS TO SUE FOR A

Restaurateur Mon Out in Bad Humor and a Peck of Trouble-Four Dishonest Celestials Who Ate $22.75 Worth of Tempting Vinuds for Which They Did Not Pay-The Law Called In.

Almond-eyed Mon Out walked slowly into his restaurant, the Pagoda, on Mott street this morning and there was a troubled look on his

His queue was awry. His head was bent orward, so that his chin touched his satin-lined blue blouse. His hands were crossed behind his back, and he muttered to himself as he walked. His corps of waiters watched him anxiously as he shuffled on to the door of his private

There he halted and turned around. He glanced at the waiters severely. They trembled and busied themselves with dusting the tables, already as clean as they could be. Beckoning the head waiter to him Mon Out dashed into his office, and the men outside heard him firing things around in a lively

Me Goy slid softly into the office and stood with a table between him and his boss, "Found the thief yet?" asked Mon sharply.

"Get out." Me turned, only too willing to obey. Mon called him back. "How many men did you discharge yesterday?" he asked.

"Three."
"Half of what we had?" "Yes."
"Then discharge them all to-day and hire new ones.

w ones.
"Yes."
"And say."
Me came back again.
"Discharge yourself, too," said Mon.
"Yes," replied Me, more meekly, and he Left to himself, Mon sat down at a table and supported his head on one hand. For a fact, he has some reason to be He has been threatened with legal proceed-ings by some of his countrymen, who allege that they were swindled out of a dinner in his restaurant early yesterday morning.

The complainants are four of the best known young Chinamen in town. They are high rollers, every one of them. They are sports and gamblers, but are considered none the worse for that among their countrymen.

the worse for that among their countrymen.

They were playing fan tan in Pell street on Tuesday night.

Ling Gee, one of their number, got an unusual streak of luck. His friends followed his plays. They broke the bank in an hour. They went to another one. More fan-tan was indulged in. They broke the second bank even quicker than they did the first.

They started for still another place. On the way they passed The Pagoda.

"Let us go in and order a dinner that will be ready just about the time we are done over here," proposed Lee.

His companion consented. They were followed by quite a few of their poor countrymen, who watched them with envious eyes as they ordered the following dinner:

Bird's Nest Soup. Bil, How, Cooked.

as they ordered the following dinner:

Bird's Neat Soup. Bil, How, Cooked.
Chow Chop Sui. Goot Son Moi.
Perfumed Pork. Chow Gai Goot.
Roast Duck. Roast Chicken.
Yen Wo Gan. Chow Gai Pien.
Dwin Oh.
Gai Li Gia. Fing.
Fow Gong Poch Oh. Foh ob Gai.
Lien Chee Gin.
Den Sen.

This dinner cost $22.75. Lee paid for it at ouce. He and his friend started to break the other bank.

once. He a other bank.

They left orders for the table set for four. and to have it ready as quickly as possible.

It was put on the table about 2 A. M. yester.

Four Chinamen entered so quickly that it

Four Chinamen entered so quickly that it seemed as if they had been waiting outside. They looked glum and seemed exetted.
One of them slipped the waiter a dollar. He put it in his pocket. The four men swallowed the sumptuous dinner hastily and hurried out as silently as they had entered. The waiters were clearing away the debris, when four young Chinamen entered in high spirits. They wanted that dinner. They had paid for it. Lee insisted on having it.

Mon refused to give another dinner or return the money. He said it was not his fault if four sharpers had eaten the dinner. Lee and his friends went away, vowing vengence.

Later in the day it is reported that they called upon Lawyer Frank N. S. Oliver, of 145 Broadway, and instructed him to begin suit against Mon for the recovery of his $22.75.

This caused Mon's fearful temper yesterday and to-day. He has discharged all the waiters who were on duty Wednesday morning.

His friends said to-day that he would spend His friends said to-day that he would spend his fortune rather than give up the money. He will engage Howe & Hummel to defend him. He thinks that Lee suspects him and his waiters of eating the dinner. The occurence has excited Chinatown.

A LULL IN THE GALE.

Sergt. Dunn Predicts Fair But Cold Weather, with No Big Winds.

"No more cyclones or big winds for the present," said Sergt. Dunn to THE EVENING WORLD man this morning. "The storm has entirely disappeared," he continued.

Then he turned his attention to one of his numerous charts and imparted the information that the indications were for fair and colder weather, and that the thermometer was 30 de-grees in this city. Rain was falling, he said, along the Atlantic coast, and in Chicago it was snowing. A storm was developing on the North-ern Pacific coast, but whether or not it would reach here he was not certain.

Chicago Opera-House Badly Scorched. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ]

CHICAGO, Dec. 13. -The damage by fire to the Chicago Opera-House last night was about $80,000. The fire caught from a lantern which was broken by a boy who was engaged in sweeping the gallery. Some of the "Lorraine" costumes were badly damaged, and it will be a month before the theatre can be repaired.

Harrible Death of a Lebigh Brakeman.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] WAYERLY, N. Y., Dec. 13.-J. E. Smith. wenty-seven years of age, a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, fell from a coal train near here this morning and was instantly killed. His body was dragged several rods and terribly mangled, his head being severed from his body. Smith leaves a wife and two children.

Two Lives Lost in a Providence Fire. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ] PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 13.-William Mc-Sweeney and Henry Carr were fatally burned by a fire in the former's mattress factory about 8 o'clock this morning. Walter Macomber, aged sixteen, also received injuries from which he may not recover.

FRISKY MISS RAYMOND IS NOW MRS. H. MONTGOMERY HILL.

There Was a Quiet But Chipper Wedding at the Little Church Round the Corner, and the Helress of Ragged Mary's Wealth Is Now a Photographer's Bride Her Family Knew Nothing Until It Was Too Late.

HILL-RAYMOND. - Dec. 11, by the Rev. Dr. Houghton. HUGH MONTOOMERY HILL to FRANCESCA LOELLO RAYMOND.

The frisky Frankie Raymond is no more Now she is Mrs. H. Montgomery Hill, which has a better sound, in view of the notoriety which attached itself to the young woman's maiden name.

Silver-haired Dr. Houghton, of the "Little Church Around the Corner," was called on last Tuesday by a young man of thirty and a vivacious maiden of twenty-one, who wished im to do the old clerical sum in arithmetic where two units tot up one.

The groom was Hugh Montgomery Hill, one of the five brothers who are engaged in the photographing business at Broadway and Thirtieth street. The bride was Francesca the photographing business as Francesca Loello Raymond, who gayly gave her place of residence as Chicago. The local traditions of that interesting place may have influenced Miss Raymond's views of matrimony, for she seemed to regard the proceedings as expectations of the control of the cont she seemed to regard the proceedings as exquisitely funny.

Dr. Houghton, who is not so blessed with a sense of the humor of matrimony, rebuked the giddy bride for her frivolity and inquired the creeds of the contracting parties. Francesca declared herself a Roman Catholic, but there was no higotry about her, and the Episcopal Church would do very well. Mrs. Hill had been reared in the Church of England, though born in Dublin, Ireland.

After the ceremony the two-made-one skipped into a carriage and disappeared, Mrs. Hill still seeming a prey to the conricality of the situation.

ity of the situation.

The Hill family, which consists of a mother, five sons and a daughter, were not exuberantly pleased with the nuptials, which were something of a surprise.

"I did not know my brother was going to marry her till it was done," said Miss Hill to the Evening World reporter. ONE OF FRANCIE'S LATEST APPEARANCES. Miss Frankie Raymond, only about two months since, was charged by a Mrs. Mills, of 796 Sixth avenue, with stealing her diamonds and making for Boston. Miss Raymond was exonerated by the jury. She claimed to be the daughter of the late Henry J. Raymond. A telegram from Chicago, however, at the end of last month disclosed that the young woman was the daughter and heiress to the wealth of 'Ragged Mary,' who died in that city at the time. 'Ragged Mary' and her husband, John Myer, had lived in squalor husband, John Myer, had lived in squalor and poverty, though well off in real estate. Frankie inherits something from her mother, but nothing like the $250,000 which was said to have fallen to her. In her tender girlhood Frankie sold flowers on Chicago pavements, and was known as "Camille, the Flower Girl." She is not remarkably educated, but knows French and elecution and has a good memory for poetry.

She claimed that Mrs. Mills was in the habit of loaning her the diamonds, and that she found her-self on the way to Boston with them unconscious of how she came to start for there.

for there.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hill are still in New York, but intend to make a honeymoon tour.

The place they will visit is kept secret by

Snowshoeing Is Becoming Popular in Plans for Winter Sport.

One of the Winter sports fast becoming popular in this section of the land is that of snowshoeing, but of course it is necessary that a goodly amount of snow be upon the ground in order to properly enjoy the fun.

Snowshoes are made of different kinds of light wood and rawhide. The best shoes are made of well-seasoned young hickory, strung across with Indian (tanned) rawhide, cut in narrows with indian (tanned) rawhide, cut in narrow strips and netted.

A number of young people in South Brook-lyn have formed themselves into a Snow-shoeing Club, and have set their hearts upon taking a trip to Coney Island this Winter.

The Quotations.

١	American Cotton Oil	55%	55%	5516
١	American Cable	81	81	- 81
1	American Cable	57%	57%	5694
1	Buffalo R. & B. pfd	90%	90%	90%
J	Canada Southern,	5214	5234	524
J	Chesapeake & Ohio.	4672	1739	1/94
1	Chicago Gas Trust		10794	10634
J	Chicago & Northwest	1883	1053	10446
1	Chicago Mil A St Paul	RILL	6117	0004
1	Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul pfd,	10112	102	10112
1	Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific	98	98%	9632
ı	Chicago & Eastern Illinois	4134	4114	4114
	Chicago & Eastern Illinois pfd	93%	19354	9334
J	Col. & Hocking Valley	2019	3314	2014
۱	Colorado Coal & Iron Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Delaware & Hudson	18425	1850	1846
d	Thelewater & Hudson	19762	1000	1842
1	East Tenn Va A Ga	997	1944	-60
I	East Tenn., Va. & Ga. 2d pfd	2252	2017	2212
	Green Hay & Winons	737	734	757
	Lake Shore Lake Eric & Western	1001	100%	100
	Lake Erie & Western	1634	10%	16%
	Lake Erie & Western phi	3.W24	2005	419
	Louisville & Nashville	5417	67.16	0.834
	Michigan Central	714	7134	7014
	Misseouri Pacific. New Jersey Central	0.332	0.947	9112
	New York Central	107	107	107
	New York Central N. Y. & New England	40	40%	39%
	N. Y., Chicago & St. L. 1st pfd N. Y., Lake Erie & Western	69	69	69
	N. Y., Lake Erie & Western	20	200	4536
	N. Y., Susq. & Western N. Y., Susq. & Western pfd	32	907	2016
	N. Y. Susq & Western pfd	4916	4164	404
	Northern Pacific	2412	0412	2412
	Norfolk & Western pfd Northern Pacific Northern Pacific pfd	58%	5897	5894
	Ohio & Mississippi,	2056	2044	2014
	Oregon Transcontinental	2994	2004	2937
	Oragon Improvement	03/99	01/96	GIPM
	Oregon Short Line		93	23
	Pacific Mail.	9012	8772	13378
	Philadelphia & Reading		4647	4034
	Philadelphia & Reading Peoria, Decatur & Evansville	2414	2414	2412
	Pullman Palace Car Co	17934	17232	17212
	Chatch at long of d	35	35	35
	Rich. & West Point Ter	2329	2779	2334
	Rich. & West Point Ter. pfd	2339	2375	2374
	St. Paul & Omaha	18772	1877	16779
	St. Paul & Omaha pfd	10,134	1072	111111
	St. Louis & San Francisco	2414	25	244
	St. Louis & San Francisco pfd	6432	64%	0452
	Texas Pacific	2117	2137	2114
	Tenn Coal & Iron	34.	34	34.
	Union Pacific	0225	9774	92%
	Wab., St. Louis & Pacific pfd	3379	2412	2325
	Western Union Telegraph	232	F-137/8	646
	IT HEREITING IN LIGHT SELECTION OF THE PARTY	434530	Cr.Cr	1707%

New York Markets. Wheat.—May opened Mc. above last night's closing quotation, at $1,12%, and after advancing to $1,13, declined to $1,12%, at which it stood at noon. Dec. opened at $1,08%; Jan., $1,07; Feb., $1,08%; March, $1,10%. The market was firm. Liverpool cables quiet Chicago strong.

market was firm. Liverpool cables quiet Chicago strong.
Corron.—Futures opened quiet, but firm, at 1 point advance above last night's closing quotations, Dec., 9.53; Jan., 9.62; Feb., 9.75; March, 9.87; April, 9.97; May, 10.07; June, 10.17; Juny, 10.23; Aug., 10.28. Liverpool quiet but steady.
Correx.—Contracts opened steady at 30 to 40 points decline. Dec., 14.85; Jan., 15.05; Feb., 15.15; March, 15.25; April, 15.30; May and June, 15.35; July and Aug., 15.40; Sept., 15.45; Oct., 15.50. Hamburg quiet. Havre steady.
PETROLEUR.—Pipe line certificates opened strong at 90%c.—%c. above last night's closing quotation. During the morning the quotation advanced to 90%c., but at noon stood at 90%c. Market quiet, but steady.

A CLEAN KNOCKOUT.

Ryan, of Brooklyn, Victor Over Farrell, of Philadelphia.

An Unexpected Blow in the Ninth Round Won the Fight.

The Contest Marked by Much Scientific Work and Little Blood.

Whitey Ryan, of Brooklyn, earned a $150 purse early this morning by knocking out Jimmy Farrell, of Philadelphia, in a nine-round[prize-fight near Pelham. Ryan is a year older than Farrell, who is twenty-one. His height is 5 feet 7 inches, one inch more than Farrell's, and he weighed 124 pounds as he entered the ring, while the Philadelphian weighed 125.

The Brooklyn man was looken after by Joe Malone and Bob Davis, while Tim Carney and Larry O'Rourke took care of Farrell, The fight occupied little more than half an hour, and ended with Farrell in a state of collapse from which he did not recover for a couple of minutes. He feli under a blow in the throat straight from Ryan's left shoulder. Ryan had been playing on the neck all the time, but was quite skilfully thwarted by the Quaker City pugilist. The third, fourth and fifth rounds were were marked by some of the cleanest and most scientific work ever witnessed in a similar contest. Ryan made four savage attempts at Farrell's neck during these three rounds, but only succeeded in landing once. Near the close of the fifth round, Ryan caught a jaw-cracker from Farrell's left and was stag-jaw-eracker from Farrell's left and was stag-gering for a moment.

Farrell's tactics were most aggressive in the two opening rounds, when he did some live'y leading, which Ryan cleverly avoided.

Hyan landed a number of vicious body blows in these two rounds.

Rounds the sixth, seventh and eighth were bloodless and not particularly interesting.

The knockout blow in the ninth came very unexpectedly and just at a time when the unexpectedly and just at a time when the spectators had begun to think the fight was to be a long and tiresome one. Farrell was in the act of leading when be fell beneath Ryan's stroke.

fell beneath Ryan's stroke.

Neither man was severely punished in the affair, Farrell showing scarcely a scratch when he revived after the knockout.

The fight was under Queensberry rules, and the ring was pitched in a small cellar. Only about thirty spectators saw the affair. Skin gloves were used.

Mr. Hewitt Will Not Agree to an Appropr ation for a Soldiers' Memorial Shaft. At the session of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment this morning Judge Van Hoesen, of the Court of Common Pleas, United States Marshal Martin T. McMahon and Judge Browne, of the City Court, appeared to urge the appropriation of $250,000 for the erection of a soldiers' monument in Central Park. Judge Van Hoesen said it was shameful that, while every little hamlet in the country is erecting a monument to commenorate the services of their soldier dead, the great metropolis of the nation is still without one.

THE MAYOR AND THE MONUMENT.

Mayor Hewitt interrupted the argument to say that he was opposed to the appropriation and would not be a party to taxing the people for the purpose of erecting a soldiers monument. He "would not make the people compulsory

He "would not make the people compulsory patriots."

Gen. McMahon tried to advance an argument in favor of the appropriation, when Mayor Hewitt said:

"There is no use in discussing this question. A unanimous vote of this Board is required to make the appropriation and I shall vote against it. You can put the Mayor down as opposing it."

Assemblyman-elect Thomas J. Creamer appeared to urge an additional appropriation of $2,500 to furnish settees for Tompkins Square, which is notably deficient in seating accommodation.

which is notably deficient in scatting accommodation.

Mayor Hewitt insisted that a portion of the appropriation already made could be used, although President Robb, of the Park Board, declared it to be insufficient.

Mr. Creamer cited the parks of London and Paris as models as regards seats, whereupon Mayor Hewitt said that people had to pay for the seats they occupied in those parks and seemed to think it would be a good plan to inaugurate a similar system here.

INVESTIGATING THE "CITY RECORD."

The Fassett Committee Hears a Tale Abou Stationery Supplies.

The Passett Investigating Committee com menced this morning to inquire just how the office of the City Record is conducted under Mr. Costigan's régime.

Commissioner Horace Porter, of the Board of Commissioner Horace Porter, of the Board of Charities and Correction, was examined as to the amount of stationery used in his Department and who used it.

From his testimony was brought out the fact that some fifteen or sixteen thousand people, including clerks, officials and limates of the various institutions under the Commissioners' care, used the ink and paper.

"Do I understand you to say that all the inmates of the institutions are supplied with paper and ink "asked Mr. Boardman.

"Yee, "replied the Commissioner, "we are obliged to supply them. We also furnish 150 clerks in the Board of Health with the same materials."

Chief Clerk Golderman, of the Health Board, stated that the stationery was procured by requisition upon the Cty Record office. They never received more than they asked for.

Supervisor Costigan was called to the witness chair and was asked why he had not produced certain books.

chair and was asked why he had not produced certain books.

He said he had nothing to conceal, but that fils subporna did not call for the production of the books.

After he became Supervisor the then Corporation Counsel, William C. Whitney, decided that the Board of City Record was not a real Board, and that there was no necessity for keeping minutes.

Acting on that advice, Mr. Costigan discon-tioned keeping minutes.

Fidelity Harper Becomes Insane. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 13.—E. I., Harper, ex-President of the Fidelity National Bank of Cin-

> The Murrayhill Children, [P. H. Welch in Life.]

Mrs. Murrayhill-Celeste, what is Master Har-

TIMAYENIS AT THE TOMBS.

THE AUTHOR OF "ORIGINAL MR. JACOBS ACCUSED OF LARCENY.

Arrested on a Warrant Last Night and Railed in the Elizabeth Street Station Arraigned at the Tombs This Morning and Held for Examination-What the Amdavits Against Him Say.

'Original Mr. Jacobs," which was supressed on the Elevated railroads, was a prisoner in the Tombs Police Court this morning charged with grand larceny.

Telemaque T. Timayenis, author of the

The former Professor of Greek at Harvard University stood in line with the commor drunks and presented a more woe-begone appearance than one, judging from the tone of his writings, would have expected.

His counsel, William Rea Bronk, stood beside him and argued with the reporters that it was all a mistake and that publicity should be suppressed. As this was an impossibility Mr. Bronk threatened to have a private examination in the Judge's room and demand the exclusion of reporters.

On the 24th of October Timayenis entered into a partnership with Mrs. Emma Dickson, of 330 West Fifty-ninth street, for ten years. Mrs. Dixon furnished a capital of $1,500 and Timayenis as his share was to write plays, manuscripts and novels. The firm was to be known as the Minerva Publishing Company, and offices were fitted up at No. 10 West Twenty-third street. Mr. J. B. Dickson, husband of the fair plaintiff, transacted all the business with the power of transacted all the business with the power of attorney.

One of the first works issued by the company was "The Original Mr. Jacobs." It was an extremely coarse attack on the Semitic race, and almost universal indignation was manifested by the people. The work was put on the Elevated railroads for sale, but the Company, on learning it nature, promptly drove it from their stands.

But the firm made some money and Timayens lived in good style on Pelham avenue, Fordham. He first appeared in this city about ten years ago after teaching in Holyoke, Mass., and at Harvard University, at which latter place he taught Greek. He wrote while there the "History of Greece from the Times of Hemer." Later he wrote a play for John McCullough, entitled "The Wife of Miletus."

Two specific charges are made against Mr.

titled "The Wife of Miletus."

Two specific charges are made against Mr. Timayenis. On Auc. 2, 1888, the affidavits state that Timayenis represented to Mr. Dickson that he had paid $200 to Rand, Avery & Co., of Boston, Mass., and had regularly entered the same on the books.

Mr. Dickson found later that the payment had not been read, and when Timayenis was had not been made, and when Timayenis was taxed with this he admitted that he had not, but added that he would do so, as he had the money in the bank. Mr. Dickson sent to the bank and found that there was only $73 to the credit of the Minerva Publishing Comthe credit of the Minerva Publishing Company.

The affidavit goes on to say that on the 10th of October, 1888, "the said Timayenis, with intent to beat and defraud the members of said firm, did enter into a book of said firm kept in the business the sum of $10 on account of royalty on a certain book, whereas in truth and in fact said Timayenis did not pay the said sum of $10."

This sum Timayenis alleges he paid to George Hastings, of the firm of Hastings & Northrup, but an affidavit of Hastings states that he never received it.

Hasting's affidavit also states that Timayenis also got from the former's firm accounts.

yenis also got from the former's firm accom-modation or promissory notes which he had discounted at the Second National Bank, but no records of these transactions appear in the Minerva Publishing Company's books. When the notes became due Hastings made new ones to cover the interest. Timayenis was arraigned before Justice Smith and pleaded not guity. Howe & Hum-mell represented Mrs. Dickson. The case was adjourned until to-morrow afternoon, when it will come up before Judge Patter-

Timayenis was arrested by Court Officer O'Connor last night and locked up in the Elizabeth street station. He was later bailed out by Mr. H. H. Brockway, of the Ashiand House, and Justice Smith allowed the bail bond to stand.

MRS ROGERS'S HENRIETTA.

Another Woman Claims She Is the Mother of the Little Heiress.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Court heard affidavits for a new trial yesterday bearing on a petition of a Mrs. Ella M. Rogers, who claims to be the mother of Henrietta T. Rogers, a child who, up to this time, has been considered heiress of a great fortune.

Some time ago Ella M. Rogers, the widow of Henry S. Bogers, (seventy years of age when he became her spouse) appeared in court with a young child and asked to be appointed administratrix of the heritage rightfully to fall into possession of Henry S. Rogers's daughter, Mr. ogers having died intestate. Other heirs to to the property had opposed the petition on the surprising ground that the little girl was not the daughter of the marriage covenant of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Rogers, but was a fatherless issue obtained especially for the purpose of securing the fortune, but the Supreme Court at that time decided that Mrs. Rogers was the mother of the child, so she was left administratrix of her husband's estate.

The petition for a new trial depends upon the evidence of a woman who claims to be the real mother of the child.

The woman's agme is Miss Love II. cirl was not the daughter of the marriage covewoman's name is Miss Jennie Hamilton, of ort, R. I. Newport, R. I.
She is now under the special watch of Private Detective McHenry, of this city.
When the case was first tried it was alleged as against Mrs. Rogers's claim that there was no physician present at the time of the birth.
To meet this suspicion Mrs. Rogers says that the wirth of the child was hastened by emotion into an unusual state of which she was plunged by a visit to her husband's grave on the day when the birth took place.

Walking Downtown for Health. [Sun Prancisco'Chronicle's New Fork Letter, ]
The Wormser brothers evidently believe that the early bird catches the worm and that walking conduces to longevity, for either connati, now in the Obio Prison here, became a unsane this morning and was removed to the ansane department. He was forty years old mornings wending his way down Fifth avenue to catch the Elevated train at Fortysecond street as early as 8.15 of the clock. A friend, who was compelled to come downtown early for a special reason, met Simon the other day as he was leaving the "L" train Celeste—I happened to say, madam, that I lived with a little boy who had 104 presents one Christmas.

Mrs. Murrayhill—Well?
Celeste—Why, then he insisted upon counting his and he has been kicking and crying like this ever since because he has only ninety-eight.

Mrs. Murrayhill (soothingly)—There, Harold, dear, you shall have some more if you want them. I should think, Celeste, you could get on peaceably with the little fellow to-day of all days.

PRICE ONE CENT.

JACK WRITES TO UNCLE ABE.

THE RIPPER " SAYS HE'S HERE AND WILL BEGIN WORK AFTER CHRISTMAS.

He Scorns the Allegation That He Is in Canada Some Think the Letter Was Written by Some Poor Joker, and It Written to the Police, However.

In Mayor Hewitt's morning mail to-day was a communication of the most startling character, and one which threatens to make New York the scene of horrors like those which recently disgraced the English capi-

It is a letter from no less a personage than 'Jack the Ripper," or from one who signs the name which the terrible Whitechapel fiend used in addressing the London police authorities. Here is the communication:

authorities. Here is the communication:

New York, Dec. 12, 1888.

How. Abram & Hewite, Nayor.

Sin: It is folly for the police and the newspapers to speculate on my being in Montreal or any other part of Canada. I am right here in their midat and will begin operations immediately after Christmas.

The letter is looked upon as the work of some poor joker who would like to stir up the police and spread consternation among the street-walking court-sans of the city.

the street-walking court-sans of the city.

The handwriting bears but slight resemblance to the fac-simile of the original Jack's handwriting which has been published.

FOUND A CONGRESS OF BLACKSNAKES Boniface Taylor, Who Has Seen Senators, Shot the President with a Whitney Gun. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,] BRIDGEPPRT, Conn., Dec. 13. -Edward J. Tayor, the proprietor of Taylor's Hotel, the select Summer resort at Sandy Hook, Conn., was out hunting a few days ago in that wild and desolate centry lying a few miles north of Zoar.

is attention was called to the peculiar working of his dog. He was amazed to find a stony basin completely alive with an immense number of black-snakes of all sizes.

As he entered a rocky dell in pursuit of game

In the centre, upon a small stone, was colled with uplifted head one of the largest snakes hr. Taylor had ever seen. Around the stone, at a short distance, the rest of the snakes were ar-short distance, the rest of the snakes were arranged in irregular order, with their eyes fixed intently upon the central reptils.

Mr. Taylor was astonished at what followed. The snakes seemed to be holding a sort of congress, and were conducting their deliberations in apparently an orderly manner.

Mr. Taylor was in Washington lately on his wedding tour and visited the Senate. The gravity of appearance and the tongue of the head reptile, he said, reminded him forcibly of Senator Ingalls, and as it uttered some particularly venomous sounds it was vigorously hissed by the others. venomous sounds it was vigorous; others.

Mr. Taylor says the appearance of the snake was so unusually disagreeable that upon the impulse of the moment he discharged both barrels of his new Whitney gun, effectually disposing of that particular reptile.

The assemblage of snakes immediately dispersed and he carried the dead snake back to the hotel and has had it stuffed and placed in full view of the barroom gossips.

STRUCK BY A SWITCHED CAR.

Newman's Horrible Death on the Third Avenue "L" Rond. An investigation was made to-day by General Manager Hain as to the death of Switchman William Newman in the accident on the Third Avenue Elevated road immediately in front of his home. It shows that Newman was struck unawares by the rear car of a train which was being run onto the middle track at One Hundred and Fifteenth street, and which he had but a few minutes bestreet, and which he had but a few minutes be-fore switched from the uptown track.

The Elevated Railroad Company will probably defray the funeral expenses attendant on New-niku's death, and may furnish temporary relief to the widow, who is without money.

Muffled Drums for the Dead Admiral. The funeral of Rear-Admiral Wm. Edgar Lerey. of the United States Navy, took place with naval honors at the Church of the Transfiguration, on West Twenty-ninth street, this morning. Dr. Houghton officiated, and paid a high tribute to the dead officer. At the church were Admirals Braine and Codderton, Capts, Wiltsey and Kirk-land, Paymaster John S. Cunningham and Lieut, Morton. Lieut, Morton.

After the services the body was taken to the Grand Central Depot and placed on the 12.10 train for Tarrytown, where the interment took place in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery.

Farnham Post Election

At the annual election of Noah L. Parnham. Post, G. A. R., held at Broadway and Fortyninth street, Gharles McK, Loeser was elected Commander and Martin J. Keese, Adjutant, Police Supt. Murray and Police Capt. Allaire were elected delegates to the Memorial Committee, and Col. Edward Gilon and Alderman James A. Cowie delegates to the Department Encampment.

He Loved His Old Mother.

"Why did you take that pair of lavender colored pants from the store of Mose Schaumburg ?" asked an Austin justice of a colored

"I ain't to blame, tedge," Who is to blame ?" " My old mudder am to blame, jedge. I took em ar pants to save her life."
"How so ?"

"How so?"
"She am mighty proud ob me, jedge, becase
I'm her only son, and she would hab worried herself plum to deff if she had seed me wid my ole pants on, so to keep her from worryin' horself to deff, I jess bought dese heah pants on "Ninety days in the county jail," interrupted culprit.

Fair, but Colder Weather.

-Weather indications: For Eastern News York - Fair, colder, northwesterly winds.

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer:

Average for the past twenty-rear as is do-average for corresponding time last year, 43 is do-